

A

Assertive: An assertive person or group is one that can express themselves and their views strongly

Confront: To come face to face or to challenge someone or something. In the context of this chapter